

Two nights, nine activities, memories to last a lifetime!

There will be a 'Revolution' in South Australia this coming March and all Joeys and Cubs are invited to stand tall and be who they want to be. We will be living by land and by sea for an action-packed weekend at the Woodhouse Activity Centre, home to Scouts in South Australia.

Pricing

- $75 Joeys and Cubs
- $50 Joey parents and line leaders
- $30 activity leaders

What you get

- shirt
- souvenir
- blanket badge
- nine awesome activities
- two nights fully catered under canvas

Eligibility of youth

- Joeys must be aged between 6 and 8 years at the time of event.
- Cubs must be aged between 7½ and 11 years at the time of event.
  - Note that these ages have a small amount of leeway under special circumstances and with permission from Branch. Speak to either Pete Beaumont (bc.joeyscouts@sa.scouts.com.au) or Di Wilcock (bc.cubscouts@sa.scouts.com.au) about this.
- It is recommended that Cubs have two nights under canvas prior to the event.
- Joeys are required to have a parent/guardian accompany them.

Applications:

- Apply online at www.revolution2014.sa.scouts.com.au.
- Applications must be submitted to your Group, with full payment and all required signatures, by 29 November. Groups must then collate applications and submit them to Sub-Camp management by 6 December.
- A paper version of the application for people without the internet will be available, which will need to be entered into the online system at Group level.

An information kit for applications including guidelines of how to administer them will be sent out shortly.
